Student Loan Repayment Seminars
Learn more about Income-based Repayment, Public Service Loan Forgiveness, and many other types of repayment options.

- April 7th Candler School of Theology 12 pm- 12:45pm, RARB #322
- April 7th Candler School of Theology 5:45 pm- 6:30pm RARB #401
- April 8th Laney Grad School 11:45am-1pm Chemistry Bldg. #316
- April 9th Rollins School of Public Health, 12pm-1pm, Rita Ann Rollins Room (GCR Bldg, 8th floor)
- April 10th Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing 9 am- 10am, Room #203
- April 15th Law School 12:15pm-1:30pm Room #1D

(Lunch/Dinner will be served at all afternoon/evening sessions.)

Personal Finance Workshops
April 14th, Credit Awareness, 7pm, sponsored by Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, DUC-Black Student Union, Is your credit picture an Accurate Reflection of YOU? Do you know what the fine print on your credit card statement mean? Learn the answers and much more! Refreshments and Prize give-a-ways!

April 23rd, What’s Your Score? 12pm-1pm DUC-Harland Cinema
Experian Credit Reporting Agency and Emory Alliance Credit Union provides transparency on how your credit scores are calculated, your risk levels, how you can improve your credit scoring, and much more! Refreshments and Prize give-a-ways!

April 28th, What’s Your Money Personality? 12pm-1pm White Hall, Room #205
Have you given much thought to how you behave in regard to your finances and how that behavior affects your bottom line? Georgia Consortium for Financial Literacy will show you how your response to money is largely dictated by your personality. Understanding your money personality will help you shape your approach to spending, saving and investing. Refreshments and Prize give-a-ways!